

Possible Points	Assignment	Points Earned
3 points	Deconstruct 2 news articles per day, using Who, What, When, Why, Where, and How.

Terminology

Following is a list of terms related to journalism. You will likely find other words to include in your list, but this is a good start.

5 W's & H	Copyright	Lead
Actual malice	Dateline	Libel
Advertising	Editor	Masthead
Angle	Editorial	Off-the-record
Beat	Ethics	Op-Ed
Bias	Fair use	Plagiarism
By-line	Feature article	Public forum
Caption	Flag	Reckless disregard
Clear & present danger	Hate crime	Reporter
Column	Headline	Sedition
Conflict of interest	Human interest article	Slander
Copy	Inverted pyramid	Source

Websites to use for activities, journal articles, etc.

- <http://www.hsj.org> (There are articles and lesson plans on this website so look around to find topics that interest you.)
- http://www.hsj.org/modules/lesson_plans/detail.cfm?LessonPlanId=452&menu_id=&submenu_id=&module_id=2 (This is a year-long curriculum with loads of ideas for you to incorporate into your study of Journalism.)
- <http://www.col-ed.org/cur/sst/sst155.txt> (Freedom of the Press, using All the President's Men)
- <http://www.betsyanne.com/Journalism.html> (Journalism Curriculum)
- <http://www.newsu.org/courses/news-sense-building-blocks-news> (Free online course)
- http://stardust.jmc.asu.edu/Stardust/Stardust_Program.html (Walter Cronkite School of Journalism)
- http://www.myenglishclass.us/shared_files/understanding_news.pdf
- http://www.wallingford.k12.ct.us/uploaded/Curriculum/ENG_LA_K-12/ENG_Journalism.pdf
- <http://www.cln.org/themes/journalism.html>

Topics to consider for additional activities

- First Amendment
- Careers in Journalism
- Freedom of the Press
- Understanding the News
- Gathering and Writing the News
- Editorial Writing
- Ethics and Media Law
- American History through Journalism
- AP Style & Grammar